

1. Je - sus, name all names a - bove; Je - sus, best and dear - est;
 2. Woe that I have turned a - side Af - ter flesh - ly plea - sure!
 3. Je - sus, crowned with thorns for me, Scourged for my trans-gres - sion!
 4. Je - sus, o - pen me the gate That of old He en - tered

Je - sus, Fount of per - fect love, Ho - liest, ten - derest, near - est:
 Woe that I have nev - er tried For the heav'n - ly trea - sure!
 Wit-ness-ing, through a - go - ny, That Thy good con - fes - sion!
 Who, in that most lost es - tate, Whol - ly on Thee ven - tured;

Je - sus, Source of grace com-plet-est; Je - sus pur - est, Je - sus sweetest;
 Trea - sure, safe in himes su - per-nal, In - cor - rup - ti - ble, e - ter-nal;
 Je - sus, clad in pur - ple raiment, For my e - vils mak - ing payment:
 Thou, whose wounds are ev - er pleading And Thy Pas - sion in - ter - ced - ing,

Je - sus, Well of power Di - vine, Make me, keep me, seal me thine!
 Trea - sure no less price hath won Than the Pas - sion of the Son!
 Let not all Thy woe and pain, Let not Cal - v'ry be in vain!
 From my mis - ery let me rise To a home in Par - a - dise!

Ἰησοῦ γλκύτατε

Theoctistus, c. 890; tr. J.M. Neale, alt. (orig. "Jesu")