

1. Dis - pos - er sup - re - me, and Judge of the earth Who choos - est for thine the
 2. Those ves - sels soon fail, though full of thy light, And at thy de - cree are
 3. Like clouds are they borne to do thy great will, And swift as the winds a -
 4. Their sound go - eth forth, 'Christ Je - sus is Lord!' Then Sa - tan doth fear, his
 5. O loud be their trump, and stir - ring the sound, To rouse us, O Lord, from 6. All ho - nor and praise, do - min - ion and might, To thee, Three in One, e - weak and the poor; To frail earth - en ves - sels, and things of no bro - ken and gone; Then bright - lly ap - pear - eth the arm of thy bout the world go; All full of thy God - head, while earth li - eth cit - a - dels fall: As when the dread trump - ets went forth at thy sin's dead - ly sleep; May lights which thou kind - lest in dark - ness a - ter - nal - ly be, Who pour - ing a - round us thy glo - ri - ous worth, En - trust - ing thy rich - es which ay shall en - dure; might, As through the clouds break - ing the light - nings have shone.

 still, They thun - der, they light - en, the wa - ters o'er - flow.
 word, And one long blast shat - tered the Can - aan - ites wall.
 round The dull soul a - wak - en her vi - gils to keep!
 light, Dost call us from dark - ness thy glo - ry to see.

Supreme, quales, Arbiter, Jean-Baptiste de Santeuil (1630-97)

tr. Isaac Williams (1802-65), alt. The English Hymnal, 1906