

1. Dis - pos - er sup - reme, and Judge of the earth Who
 2. Those ves - sels soon fail, though full of thy light, And
 3. Like clouds are they borne to do thy great will, And 4. Their sound go - eth forth, 'Christ Je - sus is Lord!' Then 5. O loud be their trump, and stir - ring the sound, To 6. All ho - nor and praise, do - min - ion and might, To choos - est for thine the weak and the poor; To at thy de - cree are bro - ken and gone; Then swift as the winds a - bout the world go; All Sa - tan doth fear, his cit - a - dels fall: As rouse us, O Lord, from sin's dead - ly sleep; May thee, Three in One, e - ter - nal - ly be, Who frail earth - en ves - sels, and things of no worth, En - bright - lly ap - pear - eth the arm of thy might, As full of thy God-head, while earth li - eth still, They when the dread trum - pets went forth at thy word, And lights which thou kind - lest in dark - ness a - round The pour - ing a - round us thy glo - ri - ous light, Dost trust - ing thy rich - es which ay shall en - dure; through the clouds break - ing the light - nings have shone.

 thun - der, they light - en, the wa - ters o'er - flow.
 one long blast shat - tered the Can - aan - ites wall.
 dull soul a - wak - en her vi - gils to keep!
 call us from dark - ness thy glo - ry to see.