

arr. The English Hymnal, 1906, after J.S. Bach

1. Je - sus, name all names a - bove; Je - sus, best and dear - est;
 2. Woe that I have turned a - side Af - ter flesh - ly plea - sure!
 3. Je - sus, crowned with thorns for me, Scourged for my transgres - sion!
 4. Je - sus, o - pen me the gate That of old He en - tered

Je - sus, Fount of per - fect love, Ho - liest, ten - derest, Woe that I have nev - er tried For the heav'n - ly
 Wit - ness - ing, through a - go - ny, That Thy good con -
 Who, in that most lost es - tate, Whol - ly on Thee

near - est: Je - sus, Source of grace com - plet - est;
 trea - sure! Trea - sure, safe in himes su - per - nal, fes - sion! Je - sus, clad in pur - ple rai - ment, ven - tured; Thou, whose wounds are ev - er plead - ing

Je - sus pur - est, Je - sus sweet - est; Je - sus, Well of
 In - cor - rup - ti - ble, e - ter - nal; Trea - sure no less
 For my e - vils mak - ing pay - ment: Let not all Thy And Thy Pas - sion in - ter - ced - ing, From my mis - ery power Di - vine, Make me, keep me, seal me thine!

 price hath won Than the Pas - sion of the Son!
 woe and pain, Let not Cal - v'ry be in vain!
 let me rise To a home in Par - a - dise!

Ἰησοῦ γλκύτατε

Theoctistus, c. 890; tr. J.M. Neale, alt. (orig. "Jesu")