

1. With gol - den splen-dour and with ro-seate hues of morn,
2. Lo, the Key-bear - er, lo, the Teach-er of man - kind,
3. Good Shepherd, Pe - ter, un - to whom the charge was giv'n
4. O no - ble Teach-er, Paul, we trust to learn of thee
5. Twin o - live branch-es, pour-ing oil of glad - ness forth,
6. Now to the glo - rious Trin - i - ty be du - ly paid

O gra - cious Sa-viour, Light of light, the day a - doren,
 Lights of the world and judg - es sent to loose and bind,
 To close or o - pen ways of pil - gri-mage to heav'n,
 Both earth - ly con-verse and the flight of ec - sta - sy;
 Your prayers shall aid us, that for all our lit - tle worht,
 Wor - ship and ho - nour, praise and ser-vice un - a - fraid,

Which brings to ran-somed sin - ners hopes of that far home
 A - like tri - um-phant or by cross or sword - stroke found,
 In sin's hard bon-dage held may we have grace to know
 Till from the fa - ding truths that now we know in part
 Be - liev-ing, hop-ing, lov - ing, we for whom ye plead,
 Who in un-chang-ing U - ni - ty, one Lord sub - lime,

Where saints and an - gels sing the praise of mar - tyr - dom.
 In life's high Se - nate stand with vic-tor's lau - rel crowned.
 The full re - mis-sion thou wast granted to be - stow.
 We pass to ful - ness of de - light for mind and heart.
 This bo - dy dy - ing, may at - tain to life in - deed.
 Hath ev - er lived as now and to un - end - ing time.
