

1. Fa - ther of spi - rits, whose di - vine con - trol Doth bind the
 2. Thou, Ma - ker of the bo - dy, dost or - dain That this Thine
 3. In that blest re - gion shall this spi - rit dwell Where flow'rs un -
 4. Our bro - ther go - eth by the shin - ing way, That ev - er soul and bo - dy in - to one, Thou wilt re - store this im - age, moulded by Thy will, Our ev' - ry hope in dy - ing bloom on ev' - ry side: For, lo, we trust Thy to the faith - ful o - pen lies: Lord, train Thy ser - vant bo - dy now un - done; For once it was the man - sion of a glo - ry shall ful - fil; So, till the bo - dy Thou dost build a - word, O Cru - ci - fied, When in Thy tri - umph o - ver death and now in Par - a - dise, And bless him in his fa - ther - land, we soul, Where dwelt the glow - ing wis - dom of Thy Son. gain, Thou wilt pre - serve the spi - rit freed from ill.

 hell, The thief for - giv - en took Thee for his guide. pray, Till Thou shalt bid his bo - dy to a - rise.

Deus ignee fons animarum

Prudentius, 4th cent.; tr. Percy Dearmer, 1906