OLD 104TH 10 10 11 11 Thomas Ravenscroft's Whole Book of Psalmes, 1621 harm. R. Vaughan Williams Who and Judge of the earth Dis - pos - er sup - reme, ves - sels soon fail, though full of thv light, And to do will, Like clouds are they borne thy great And 3. Then 4. Their sound go - eth forth, 'Christ Je - sus is Lord! loud be their trump, To 5. and stir-ring the sound, do -To 6. All ho - nor and praise, min-ion and might, thine the To choos - est for weak and the poor; thy de Then at cree are bro - ken and gone; swift the winds bout the world All go; as a -Sa - tan doth fear. his cit - a - dels fall: AsLord, from sin's dead - ly May rouse us. sleep; thee, Three in One, ter - nal - ly be, Who e frail earth - en ves-sels, and things of worth, En no bright - lly the of Asap pear-eth arm thy might, full thv God-head, while earth li eth still, They when the dread trum-pets went forth And at thv word. lights which thou kind-lest in dark-ness round The a pour - ing a - round us thy glo - ri - ous light, Dost dure; thv rich - es which shall trust - ing av en light-nings have through the clouds break - ing the shone. they thun - der. light - en, the wa - ters o'er flow. Can - aan - ites one long blast shat-tered the wall. dull wak - en soul her vi - gils to keep! a call dark - ness thy us from glo - ry to see. Supreme, quales, Arbiter, Jean-Baptiste de Santeuil (1630-97) tr. Isaac Williams (1802-65), alt. The English Hymnal, 1906